

Michel Meyfroidt
co-CEO
Brussels Airlines

Michel Meyfroidt is co-CEO of "Brussels Airlines". Meyfroidt is also Chairman of the Management and Strategic Committee of the leading airline flying from the European capital. He has today the direct responsibility over Finances, Human Resources, Flights & Ground Operations and Maintenance & Engineering.

Civil engineer in building and Graduate in Finance, Michel Meyfroidt has a long career in the Belgian bank & insurance sector, amongst others as Deputy CEO of the "Royale Belge Group" and Director Management Reporting worldwide at the "Fortis Group". As Bernard Gustin, Michel Meyfroidt was also one of the main actors in the creation and the development of the new Belgian airline "SN Brussels Airlines". During the development of the new airline, Meyfroidt has always been in charge of all the support functions related to the financial, administrative and human resources area. In June 2008, he became co-CEO of "Brussels Airlines" together with Bernard Gustin.

Thanks to his strong professional experience, Michel Meyfroidt is/was also a Board Member of different companies in various sectors: insurance, bank & credit, holdings, brokerage and airlines.

Michel Meyfroidt is married and has 3 children.