

Capt. Tawfik Assy – Chairman and CEO, EGYPTAIR

Capt. Tawfik Assy the chairman & CEO of EGYPTAIR Holding Company took over his position on 16th April, 2008 after more than 38 years of experience within EGYPTAIR. Capt. Tawfik has been Chairman & CEO of EGYPTAIR Tourism and Duty Free Shops Company, from June 2003 till April 2008, he achieved significant level of success in the leadership of the company by taking charge of rehabilitating the Tourism Sector in addition to this, he managed to redefine and expand the concept of duty free shopping over the majority of the Egyptian Airports. Among his business achievements, considerable growth of revenues that climbed five times through the past four years.

In line with this, he was the chairman of Smart Airline a taxi flight Company since 2007 till April 2008 the performance of which witnessed a great leap.

He is a board member of EGYPTAIR Holding Company and the highest strategic committees, as part of EGYPTAIR restructuring he played a key role in the corporate structure to enable key businesses modernization; including Star Alliance integration, IT enhancement, Safety, Quality and environmental consideration.

Capt. Tawfik served in a number of senior positions in the flight operation sector; an assistant Vice president, general manager training flight operation, general Manager Safety & Quality. He also served as a consultant in the people Assembly for Aviation issues.

Joined EGYPTAIR on December, 1970 as maintenance engineer. During 1970 – 2003 he completed his training on B707 and became an instructor in the company first ever training center. He received a certification as a licensed pilot for B707.

He commenced as a co-pilot on B707 and later became a captain, a chief pilot as well as instructor for different types of aircrafts Fokker, B737 and AB320/330/340. Where as today he is still licensed for AB 330/340.

Born on the 17th of November, 1947. Graduated from Alexandria University, Faculty of Engineering, where he earned BSC of electricity in 1970. He holds a diploma in administration management.