

Mats Jansson

Member of Group Management,
President and CEO,
SAS

Mats Jansson was born in 1951 in Kolsva, central Sweden. He is married and has four daughters aged 13 to 27. The family lives in Stockholm. In his leisure time, he actively participates in tennis, skiing and running and has taken part in the New York Marathon three times.

Curriculum Vitae:

2005-2006

President and CEO of Axel Johnson AB (sales of SEK 43 billion, 14,000 employees).

2005-2000

President and CEO of Axfood and from 2005, Chairman of this company (sales of SEK 28 billion, 7,000 employees).

2000-1999

President and CEO of the Fazer Group (sales of SEK 6 billion, approximately 7,000 employees).

1999-1994

President and CEO of Catena/Bilia (sales of SEK 17 billion, 4,500 employees).

1994-1973

Various senior positions at ICA (sales of SEK 43 billion, 30,000 employees).

Mats Jansson studied economics and sociology at the University of Örebro.

Shareholding: 46 000